SECRET MARRIAGE CONFESSED.

Young People at Evanston Wanted to Avoid a Swell Wedding.
CHICAGO, March 10.—Ella G. Harper, daughter of John A. Hood, of Wells Fargo Express Company, and George H. Parker, son of L. D. Parker, General Superintendent of the Postal Telegraph Company, both of Evanston, took a trip to Milwaukee on Feb.
4 and were married.
They returned to Evanston and lived with their respective parents. Yesterday the bride returned to her mother and Mr. Parker told his parents by mail of their marriage.
The groom explained the secret marriage as being simply to avoid a swell wedding, with attendant pomp and show.

THREE MONTHS FOR SCHLOTT.

He Drew a Knife on the Champion of His Wife.

August Schlott, who keeps a laundry at 117 Second Street, was sent to the island for three months from Essex Market Court today. He got drunk last night and was beating his wife, Mary, when August Weber, a young man, who works for him, interfered and proceeded to beat Schlott.
The wife-beater was getting the worst of the fight and drew a knife on Weber. The young man shouted for help, and a policeman came to his rescue and arrested the laundry-keeper.

Ten-Pin Player Broke a Leg.
NEWARK, N. J., March 10.—Robert Weigand fell while playing ten pins last night on the National Turnverein alley, and broke his right leg. The leg was twisted at the knee, and the break is a serious one.
